

WHISPERING PINES CAMP

JUNE 21 - 30

*COME TO THE BRADSHAW MOUNTAINS
AND EXPERIENCE 10 DAYS OF AN INDIAN YOUTH CAMP*

WHERE: Whispering Pines Camp is located in the Bradshaw Mountains 9 miles from historic Prescott, Arizona. The camp is surrounded by the Prescott National Forest.

WHO MAY ATTEND: Indian youth age 10 - 14 years.

COST: Campership fee is $300.00 per camper.

TRAVEL: Parents, tribal groups or organizations that are sponsoring young people to attend camp are responsible for arranging travel to and from camp.

SURROUNDINGS: The camp is surrounded by majestic Ponderosa Pine trees. Large boulders on the camp grounds enhance its beauty and havelina and mule-tail deer as well as beautiful grey squirrels have been seen close to camp. Campers sleep in cabins with access to hot showers, bathrooms, a dining hall and kitchen, and open air shelters.

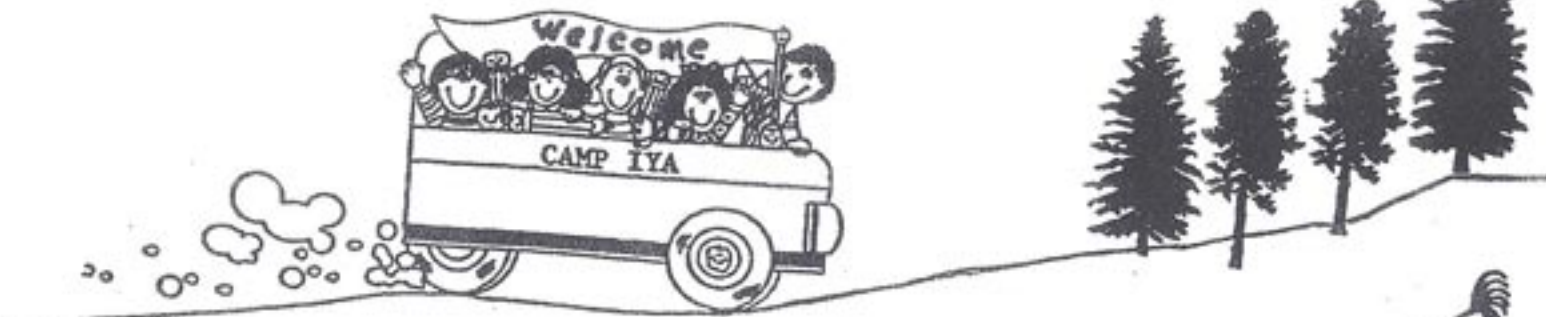

ACTIVITIES: Arts & crafts, cultural activities, campfires, skits, hiking, volleyball, mushball, basketball, swimming, canoeing, paddleboats, and mini workshops on Indian culture, leadership, healthy living, creative writing, storytelling, puppetry, hoop dancing, etc.

SUPERVISION AND SAFETY: Activities are supervised by qualified staff members. There will be a nurse at camp at all times.

WEBSITE: For more information & applications visit IYA's website: indianyouthofamerica.org

DEADLINE DATE: Return application and campership fee by June 6, 2011 to IYA, P.O. Box 2786, Sioux City, IA 51106, (712) 252-3230

HURRY—CAMPERS WILL BE SELECTED ON A FIRST COME FIRST SERVE BASIS!

"Celebrating our 35th Anniversary of conducting camps for Indian youth."

